國三忠

gita... Thieves Await ...ecutives Abroad

...tinued from Page 1

...use corporate victims ...disclosure might mean ...stock price or because ...ected ne... ...ked in ... ...cope of the problem is ...d by an incident at the ...ates Chamber of Com... ...2010.

...amber did not learn ...and its member orga... — were the victims of ...aft that had lasted for ...til the Fed... Bure... ...gation told ... ...es in China were steal... ...ation from four of its ...experts, who frequent ...the time the chamber ...network, hackers had ...least six weeks' worth ...with its member orga...

...ness 101' — at least it should be."

Neither the Chinese nor Russian embassies in Washington responded to several requests for comment. But after [illegible] accused [illegible] hacking [illegible] Chinese officials gave this statement: "China is committed to protecting the legitimate rights and interests of foreign companies in our country."

Still, United States security experts and government officials say they are increasingly concerned about breaches from within these countries into corporate networks — whether through mobile devices or other means.

...es R... ...per, the director of national ... ...ligence, warned in Senate testimony recently about theft of trade secrets by "entities" within China and Russia. And

...w Inspirati... ...unners

...RETCHEN REYNOLD...

...ometh... ...s it's good ... wi... ...s hypothesi... ...proved. That was the ca... ...tainly, with a new study ... ...runners, in which researc... ...sumed that athletes over... ...be noticeably less effici... ...their younger counterpar...

For the experiment, pu... ...rnal of Streng... ...research, ...ers at the University ... Hampshire and other insti... recruited 51 competitive ... ranging in age from 18 to ... trained regularly and had ... in the top three in his or h... group in a local 5-kilome... 10-kilometer road race.

Their goal was to assess ... ning economy, a measure of h... permission. When officials from ...hose countries visit the United States, they take extra precautions to prevent the hacking of their portable devices, according to security experts.

...ugged into ... ...again. Ever. "We just wouldn't take the risk," said Simon Hunt, a vice president.

At AirPatrol, a company based in Columbia, Maryland,

...our ... not ... The ... older ... gest... mus... oxyg... runn... Ma... ticula... the fa... sport... tics. ... to stu... is enc... in Cu... port... olde... lem... ham... Dr. ... that ... thou... legisl... dress... busi... In ... are le...

"Deeds, not Words."

導師 李雅惠 老師

...ons will increasingly be ... like public health ... ...outbreak of activity that I ... that is ... Jon ...